PARTICIPANTS REPORT A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN PERFORMANCE

Effective managers coach their teams to higher performance than what they can achieve without it!

In this workshop you will:

1. Create and apply principles for effective coaching, develop confidence and flexibility in building rapport, contracting and diagnosis in different coaching contexts
2. Enhance your listening skills for effective coaching
3. Understand and manage your emotional reactions and coach others to manage theirs
4. Apply strategic questioning to illuminate root causes in thinking and feeling
5. Coach to support people through change and transition and to develop a culture of resilience and possibility/optimism.

Bernadette Rutyna and Chris Patty have more than 20 years' experience and expertise providing facilitation, coaching and consulting services to Queensland and other Australian Government agencies, corporate and community clients.

We have a significant history of successful work in a broad range of people development areas including - whole of organisation change, strategy and culture change, team development, conflict management, leadership development, executive coaching and performance management.

How effective are your coaching skills?

As a leader coaching involves paying close attention to what is happening, tuning into individuals and the whole team, and applying a number of purposeful and engaging strategies.
